General Comment

Employee Benefits Security Administration,

I am writing to inform you that I am steadfastly against this rule. I have taken the time to educate myself on the proper use of options and options trading to provide both security to my retirement accounts and to add to my income. I have been able to grow my retirement account using options and options trading and don't need the EBSA to provide me with any protection. I request, in the strongest possible terms, that this rule be deleted now and forever, and let American citizens exercise our individual rights and liberties to oversee our finances without Federal Government intervention.

Sincerely,

Mr. R. Pernisi
